

SCCTE Membership Form 2009-2010

Membership runs from July 1, 2009-June 30, 2010

The South Carolina Council of Teachers of English invites you to join an organization that offers professional development opportunities through an annual state conference, provides teaching resources through publications such as the Harbinger, and Carolina English Teacher, and connects you with a network of professionals in your field. To facilitate your joining SCCTE, we offer several options for membership.

Print clearly all information for complete processing of membership application. We will use email to send you important announcements.
